

ALFREDO BONET BAIGET

A) Professional and biographical profile.

Bachelor's degree in Economics and Business from the Complutense University of Madrid and Commercial Attaché and State Economist.

Economic and Commercial Counselor of Spain in Miami (1987-1991) and Milan (1993-1997).

Deputy General Director of Trade Policy for the EU and Relations with the GATT (1991-1993).

General Manager of Altair Asesores (1997-2001).

General Manager of Promotion of the Spanish Institute for Foreign Trade (ICEX) (2001-2004).

Secretary General of Foreign Trade and member of the Boards of Directors of Instituto de Crédito Oficial (ICO) and Navantia (2004-2010).

Secretary of State for Foreign Trade and President of ICEX and Invest in Spain (2010-2012).

Chief Economic and Commercial Counselor at the Spanish Delegation to the OECD (2012-2015) and International Director of the Spanish Chamber of Commerce (2015-2018).

President of the State Association of Commercial Technicians and Economists (2017-2019).

Secretary General Círculo de Empresarios (Spanish Business Leaders Circle) (2018-2022).

A member of the Madrid Open City executive committee (2022).

B) Membership of other boards.

None.

C) An indication of the category of director to which they belong, stating, in the case of proprietary directors, the shareholder they represent or with whom they are related.

Independent non-executive director.

D) Date of their first appointment as a director of the company, as well as any subsequent re-elections.

First appointment: June 27, 2018.

E) Company's shares, and any options on these shares held.

None.